conservation easement be placed on the Chimeneas Ranch and the property be kept in private ownership.

Our new Governor has requested that any Californian with a suggestion that saves the state money and results in a more efficient government should come forward. The Cattlemen's Association has come forward.